 Wanted—Powell & Snider.
 Hawke's Lenses—J. S. Grant.
 Furniture—No. 37 Patton Avenue.
 Professional Card—Dr. J. N. Bettes.

Dr. Reuben H. Bryant.
 We had a call yesterday from a colored physician bearing the above name, and who comes to Asheville to make it his home and practice his profession. He is a native of Raleigh, and a graduate of the Leonard Medical College, of the medical department of Shaw University, of which he bears the diploma. Besides this document he comes accredited with cordial and commendatory letters from Drs. E. B. Haywood, R. H. Lewis, K. F. Battle, Jr., A. W. Knox and Dr. Jas. McKee, dean of the faculty, testimonials to professional acquirement and personal worthiness. We hope Dr. Bryant will be well received here and find a field for the exercise of qualifications of which his education and endorsement attest the possession.

Fine Peaches.
 Mr. W. S. Murray, of Busbee, sent us yesterday some fine clear stone peaches, the largest and the finest we have seen here this year. Occasionally, we find as fine and as large here as any raised in any part of the State, and for instance, as those from the orchards of Mr. C. B. Way, Mr. Dubose, and now from Mr. Murray. This latter gentleman has a fine young orchard of very choice fruit planted on the south side of Busbee mountain; and of good location, good soil, and good culture can secure fine peaches. Mr. Murray will have them. But it must be confessed that peaches are a precarious crop in the mountains, owing to the liability to a frost in May.

LYNCHBURG AND DURHAM.

Some Facts in regard to the Progress of the Work.

Durham Sun.
 The Lynchburg and Durham railroad track has been laid thirty-four miles south of Lynchburg to Staunton river. The bridge at Staunton river was to have been finished by yesterday, then track laying from this point to Banister, twenty-one miles, will be done at once. From Banister to Halifax Court House, under contract by Kelly & Carrington, will be completed by September 25.
 Grading from Halifax Court House to South Boston, five and a half miles, has been completed by Carrington & Co., and ready for the track.
 From South Boston to Durham the grading will be all ready for track laying by the first of December, with suitable weather.

A daily passenger train is now running, carrying the mails also, from Lynchburg to the following new depots established along the line: Rustburg, Windfall, Pigeon River, Woodlawn, Narra and Brookneal, a distance of thirty-four miles.
 On three miles of this road they are experimenting with the Noonan invention. This is a new idea in regard to railroad. The track and ties are covered with dirt, only the top of the rail being exposed. The spikes are not driven down in a clamping condition, but give the rail three-eighths of an inch play. This allows the track to crawl to some extent in front of the train. By this process there is no jarring and no sound. It works with perfect success. The same thing has been tried on the Roanoke Southern with equal success. If the Lynchburg and Durham adopt this system it will be one of the smoothest riding roads in the South.

Denouncing Irish Flexibility.
 LEXINGTON, September 2.—Michael Davitt writes to the Pall Mall Gazette denouncing the abandonment of a single plank of the home rule for a mess of Catholic University portage. He declares that the stand taken upon this question, together with the vote of the Irish members on the Royal Grants, forms a very sorry exhibition of parliamentary opportunism.

Railroad Collision.
 DANVILLE, Va., September 2.—There was a collision on the Danville & New River railroad this afternoon west of Martinsville, between a mixed train and a supply train. Both trains were badly wrecked. Adam Price, colored, was killed, and three other train hands were badly injured, but no passengers were seriously hurt.

 Have we made a offer like this; it lasts only till October 15. The Girl in White.

The Richmond correspondent of the Petersburg Index-appeal says:
 A very pretty Virginia girl went to New York last month to spend a few weeks with an aristocratic relative—a widow with two fashionable daughters. The Southern girl had never been to New York before. She took a bountiful supply of white muslin dresses but no frock of heavy stuff for evening wear. The first evening of her visit she arrayed herself in white. What could be more becoming or more suitable for a warm night? But the hostess and the two daughters were horrified. They told the girl that white was never worn in "good society" in New York and that she must never put on a white dress again, while she was there. The next day the visitor, accompanied by the New York ladies, went shopping and afterwards to the dress makers. In a week the fair visitor was properly attired in New York fashion. In speaking of this to one of our most noted society ladies—a lady who has spent a good deal of her time North and abroad—I was told that one reason why white was not worn in New York was on account of the exorbitant laundry rate. Two or three summers ago she determined to defy Northern custom and on several occasions appeared in a white dress. She had to pay ten dollars each time she had a dress laundered. And the dress was not half as nicely "done up" as when the old black lady at home handled it.

Monster Rattlesnakes.
 Wilmington Review.
 We saw this morning two rattlesnakes at Mr. J. H. Strauss' store in Brooklyn that were killed by his son, Mr. James Strauss, at White Oak. One was 64½ inches long, 3½ inches across the head 10 inches around the body. The other was 75 inches long, 2 inches around the body and 2½ inches across the head. They were killed by Mr. Strauss on Thursday with a stick.
 Two large rattlesnake skins, tanned and dressed, were brought up to the city this morning for the purpose of having shipped made for several members of the engineer corps of the W., O. & E. C. railroad. The snakes were killed by members of the corps. One of them was of the diamond back variety, which is somewhat rare.

Sensation at Reidsville.
 Winston Sentinel.
 From private sources we learn of a sensational affair at Reidsville. It appears that about a year ago Miss Corn May Seales was married, much against her wishes, to a Mr. Morris. She has never lived with him as a wife. Somedays ago she persuaded him to insure his life for $10,000, and to make his will in her favor. He did so, and a day or two later was found dead in bed. Death came about from the effects of chloroform. Whether he accidentally took an overdose or whether she administered it for the purpose of killing him remains yet to be decided.

HEREAFTER

We will run two delivery wagons. The necessity for this has been caused by our largely increasing trade, making it impossible to deliver with one wagon. There have been complaints (and justly, too) by some of our customers at not having goods delivered more promptly. With our additional facilities for delivery we hope to increase our already large trade, and promise to meet all competition. Our stock, as heretofore, will be kept up to the highest standard in quality. All goods sold by us guaranteed to be as represented, both in weights and quality.
